

Collapse of Banksia Financial Group

You may have read in newspapers or heard in the media of the collapse of the Banksia Financial Group.

Banksia Partners Pty Ltd has no relationship with the Banksia Financial Group & never has!

Banksia Partners is not a 'deposit taking institution' (ADI) and does not hold funds on behalf of clients. Banksia Partners does not have a Trust Account through which client funds can pass or can be held for short periods.

In all situations client funds are directed to another institution, be that a bank, superannuation fund, fund manager, or other major institutions that provides investment administration services.

It is not possible for Banksia Partners Pty Ltd to 'collapse' owing clients of our firm any money and your investments cannot be 'pledged' by Banksia Partners as security for any other purpose.

We can also advise that Banksia Partners has recently completed the independent financial audit of its 2011-12 accounts, which have since been lodged with ASIC in accordance with our ongoing Australian Financial Service License obligations.

We understand that this will have created unnecessary concern and stress for many clients, if you have any specific concerns or questions please do not hesitate to call the undersigned.

Yours Truly,

Raymond Page
